Orlando, FL – Wendy Kurtz, APR, CPRC, President of Elizabeth Charles & Associates, LLC, has been selected for induction into the PRSA College of Fellows, Class of 2022. PRSA announced today the election of 17 new members into the College, which is comprised of more than 700 leading professionals and educators in the industry, each of whom has left a significant footprint on the public relations profession.

“I am honored and proud to have been selected,” said Kurtz, who is a past board chair of PRSA’s Sunshine District, an Orlando chapter member, and currently hosts a monthly business building webinar series for the organization’s Independent Practitioners Alliance (IPA). “PRSA has been an integral part of my career for over 20 years. I am excited to join this esteemed group of colleagues, many of whom I’ve known and admired for years, in continuing to give back to the organization and profession that has given so much to me.”

A rigorous application and peer review process culminates in inducting into membership these ‘best of the best.’ Election to the College is considered the pinnacle of one’s career and the beginning of the professional’s next career phase, sharing expertise and knowledge as they continue to grow professionally and expand their careers.

“I thank these members for their generous contributions to the communications profession,” said Dr. Felicia Blow, APR, 2022 PRSA Chair. “The process is rigorous for College of Fellows applicants, and I commend each of them for their superior efforts in attaining this achievement. I extend a hearty congratulations to the Class of 2022 for their inspiring service, leadership and commitment to our industry and their fellow communicators.”
